

Bound in Brotherhood,

Led by the Spirit

The best way I can describe the Spirit of the Order is to compare it to a compass. A compass guides us and keeps us on the right path. Like a compass, the Spirit of the Order sets a path for us.

...as you return home, take time to decide your path and then blaze your trail with the aid of your own internal compass...a compass firmly bound in brotherhood and led by the Spirit of the Order.
