A photocopy of that portion of the gift instrument that includes the Order of the Arrow Endowment should accompany this application.

In order to accept the assignment of an insurance policy, it must be fully paid, or the donor may be asked to verify the current status of the policy from time to time.

The Goodman Society is not able to accept bequests in wills that are contingent upon a spouse not surviving the donor, or the donor's estate having a minimum value, or otherwise contingent.

Confirmation of the donation must accompany the donor's application to the Goodman Society.

- Insurance policies should be confirmed by a written acknowledgment from the insurance company that the policy names as the beneficiary the recipient at the address above.
- Bequests in wills and trusts should be confirmed by a copy of the will or trust.
- Appropriate language for your estate plan/will: "I give, devise, and bequeath to the National Boy Scouts of America Foundation, a not-for-profit corporation with headquarters in Irving, Texas, or its legal successor thereto: (insert sum of money, portion of the estate, description of the property, or..." the rest, residue, and the remainder of my estate.") to be used to support the Order of the Arrow Endowment Fund."

A prospective donor will be recognized with a certificate and lapel pin only upon receipt of an application and the necessary confirmation documents.
